CHAPTER II.

CLASSES OF TENANTS.

Classes of

6. There shall be, for the purposes of this Act, the following classes of tenants, namely,—

- (a) permanent tenure-holders,
- (b) fixed-rate tenants,
- (c) ex-proprietary tenants,
- (d) occupancy tenants, and
- (e) non-occupancy tenants.

Permanent Tenure-holders and Fixed-rate Tenants.

Permanent tenure-hold-

7. (1) When any permanent and transferable interest in land in a district or portion of a district which is permanently settled has been held, otherwise than under a terminable lease, by any person intermediate between the proprietor of the mahal and the occupants, from the time of the permanent settlement, at the same rate of rent, such person shall have a right to hold such interest at that rate.

(2) Such person shall be called a permanent tenure-holder.

Fixed-rate
tenants.

8. (1) When any land in a district or portion of a district which is permanently settled has been held by a tenant from the time of the permanent settlement at the same rate of rent, such tenant shall have a right of occupancy at that rate.

(2) Such tenant shall be called a fixed-rate tenant.

Presumption from entry at the last revision of records before this Act.

9. Every entry at the last revision of records before the commencement of this Act recording a person as a permanent tenure-holder, or a fixed-rate tenant, or otherwise, shall, in the absence of a judicial decision to the contrary in proceedings instituted before the commencement of this Act, be conclusive proof that such person is a permanent tenure-holder, or a fixed-rate tenant, or not, as the case may be.

Ex-proprietary Tenants.

Ex-proprie-
tenants.

10. (1) Every proprietor, whose proprietary rights in a mahal or in any portion thereof, whether in any share therein, or in any specific area thereof, are transferred, on or after the commencement of this Act, either by sale in execution of a decree or order of a Civil or Revenue Court, or by voluntary alienation, otherwise than by gift or by exchange between co-sharers in the mahal, shall become a tenant with a right of occupancy in his sîr land, and in the land which he has cultivated continuously for twelve years at the date of the transfer, and shall be entitled to hold the same at a rent which shall be four annas in the rupee less than the rate generally payable by non-occupancy tenants for land of similar quality and with similar advantages in the neighbourhood.

(2) A usufructuary mortgage shall be deemed to be a transfer within the meaning of this section.

(3) If a part only of the share of a proprietor in a mahal or in any portion thereof is so transferred, such proprietor shall become a tenant with a right of occupancy in so much of his sîr land, and of the land which he has cultivated continuously for twelve years at the date of the transfer, as appertains or corresponds to such part of his share.

(4) Every such tenant, and every tenant having the same rights under the corresponding provisions of 'Act XVIII of 1873, 'Act XII of 1891, or any other enactment for the time being in force, shall be called an ex-proprietary tenant, and, save as otherwise expressly provided, shall have all the rights and be subject to all the liabilities conferred and imposed upon occupancy tenants by this Act.

(5) The land in which such occupancy right has been created shall be specified and the rent payable therefor shall be fixed by the Collector under section 36 of the 'North-Western Provinces and Oudh Land-revenue Act, 1901.

(6) Nothing in this section shall confer a right of occupancy in any land transferred for any public or private purpose inconsistent with the existence of a right of cultivation therein.

Occupancy Tenants.

11. A tenant who has held the same land continuously for a period of twelve years shall have a right of occupancy in such land:

Acquisition of right of occupancy.

Provided that no tenant shall acquire under this section a right of occupancy in any land which he holds—

- (a) as a lessee holding under a registered lease for a term of not less than seven years; or
- (b) as a thekadâr; or
- (c) as a sub-tenant:

¹ The N.-W. P. Rent Act (18 of 1873) was repealed by the N.-W. P. Rent Act, 1931 (12 of 1931). The latter was repealed by this Act.

² Act XII of 1931 was repealed by this Act.

³ Read now the "United Provinces Land revenue Act, 1901" (infra). See the United Provinces General Clauses Act, 1904 (U. P. Act 1 of 1904), infra.

contravention of the provisions of this Act, shall be excluded, but shall not be deemed to break the continuity of the tenant's holding.

Illustrations.

(a) A, a non-occupancy tenant, has cultivated the same land continuously for five years, sub-let it for a term of two years, and then again cultivated it continuously for five years. A has not acquired a right of occupancy in the land; but if he cultivates the land continuously for two years more, otherwise than in any of the capacities specified in clauses (a) to (c) of the first proviso to this section, he will then acquire a right of occupancy in the land.

(b) A, a non-occupancy tenant, has cultivated the same land continuously for four years, lawfully sub-let it for one year; then again cultivated it for two years, then, in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 25, again sub-let it for one year, then again cultivated it for four years. A must cultivate the land for another year in order to acquire a right of occupancy.

Time from which period of twelve years begins to run.

12. For the purposes of section 11 it is immaterial whether the period of twelve years began before or after the commencement of this Act:

Provided that when previous to the commencement of this Act a tenant was holding, or at the commencement of this Act is holding, under a written lease for a definite term, or when, in any case, a tenant is holding as specified in clause (a), (b) or (c) of section 11, the period of twelve years shall begin to run from the expiry of such term, or when he ceases to so hold.

Continuous "holding" explained.

13. For the purposes of section 11 a tenant shall be deemed to have held continuously—

(a) though he may have been wrongfully dispossessed by his landholder, or have been ejected under a decree or order of a Court, which has been finally set aside in appeal or otherwise, if he has been reinstated in the land, or otherwise regained possession thereof; or

(b) though he may have been ejected from the land under section 40 of Act XII of 1881, or clause (a) or (b) of section 58 of this Act, if within a year from the date of such ejectment he has been re-admitted by his landholder to the tenancy of the land from which he has been so ejected; or

(c) though he may have surrendered, the land upon agreement, express or implied, to take other land, if within a year from the date of such surrender not having received such other land, he has been re-admitted by his landholder to the tenancy of the land so surrendered; or

(d) though he may have lost possession of the land,

if he has been admitted to the tenancy of other land under the circumstances specified in the next following section.

14. (1) If a tenant has lost possession of any land, whether—
- (a) by wrongful dispossession therefrom; or
 - (b) by a decree or order of a Court, which has been finally set aside in appeal or otherwise; or
 - (c) by ejectment under section 40 of ¹Act XII of 1881, or clause (a) or (b) of section 58 of this Act; or
 - (d) by surrender thereof upon agreement, express or implied, to take other land;

"Same land" explained.

and within a year from the date of such loss of possession has been admitted by his landholder to the tenancy of any other land, whether in the same village or not, such other land shall, if the letting value thereof does not exceed that of the land of which the tenant has so lost possession, be deemed to have been received in exchange therefor, and for the purposes of section 11 to be the same land as the land which he held before such exchange.

(2) If the letting value of the land to the tenancy of which the tenant has been so admitted by the landholder exceeds that of the land of which the tenant has lost possession, an area of the former land having a letting value equal to that of the latter shall be deemed to have been received in exchange therefor, and to the same land for the purposes of section 11.

(3) If any question arises under sub-section (2) as to the specific area in which a right of occupancy has accrued, the Court shall demarcate an area, as approximately equal in letting value as may be to the land previously held by the tenant, and declare such area to be the land received in exchange therefor:

Provided that, if there has been more than one such loss of possession of land and admission to the tenancy of other land during the period of twelve years, it shall be sufficient if the Court demarcates out of the aggregate area of the land to the tenancy of which the tenant has been admitted an area, as compact as possible, and as approximately equal in letting value as may be to the aggregate area of the land previously held by him.

(4) When an area is demarcated under sub-section (3), the Court shall, if necessary, distribute the rent of the holding accordingly.

Illustrations.

- (a)

of A, A shall be deemed to have been received in exchange for A, and for the purpose of section 11 to be the same land as A.

- (b) If in the circumstances stated in illustration (a) the letting value of field X exceeds that of field A, an area of X having a letting value equal to that of A shall be deemed to have been received in exchange for A, and to be the same land as A, and the Court shall demarcate a specific area of X equal in letting value to A, and the tenant shall have a right of occupancy in such area.
- (c) A tenant lost possession of field A, in the manner specified in section 14 (1), and within a year was admitted to the tenancy of field X; he subsequently so lost possession of X and within a year was admitted to the tenancy of Y. The Court shall demarcate an area from Y equal in letting value to A, or X, whichever has the lesser letting value.
- (d) A tenant lost possession at various times of fields A, B and C, in the manner specified in clause (a), (b), (c) or (d) of section 14 (1), and within one year of losing each field was admitted to the tenancy of fields, X, Y and Z, respectively, the letting values of which are not less than those of A, B and C, respectively, and is holding X, Y and Z at the time of the inquiry. It shall be sufficient if the Court demarcates out of fields X, Y and Z an area as compact as possible and as approximately equal in letting value as may be to the aggregate area of fields A, B and C; and it shall not be necessary to demarcate separate areas out of X, Y and Z equal in letting value to A, B and C, respectively.

Retrospective effect of certain provisions barred before July 1900.

15. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, if the period of twelve years began before the first day of July, 1900, nothing in clauses (b), (c) and (d) of section 13, or in section 14, shall be deemed to apply before that date.

Occupancy tenants.

16. Every tenant having a right of occupancy under section 11, or under the corresponding provisions of ¹Act X of 1859, ²Act XVIII of 1873, or ³Act XII of 1881, or under any other enactment for the time being in force, shall be called an occupancy tenant, and shall have all the rights and be subject to all the liabilities conferred and imposed on occupancy tenants by this Act.

Right in changed holdings.

17. Notwithstanding anything in clause (d) of section 11, a tenant who has a right of occupancy in any land shall have a right of occupancy in any other land which he may receive from the proprietor in exchange therefor, and shall thereupon cease to have a right of occupancy in the land so given by him in exchange.

Extinction of occupancy right.

18. A right of occupancy shall be extinguished—

- (a) when the tenant dies leaving no heir entitled under this Act to inherit it;
- (b) in land from which the tenant has been ejected in execution of a decree or order of a Court;
- (c) in a holding, which the tenant has abandoned, or surrendered after service upon the landholder of a notice of surrender;
- (d) in land which has been acquired for a public purpose, or a work of public utility.

(2) The interest of an ex-proprietary tenant, an occupancy tenant, or a non-occupancy tenant other than a thekadár, is, subject to the provisions of this Act, heritable, but is not transferable in execution of a decree of a Civil or Revenue Court, or otherwise than by voluntary transfer between persons in favour of whom as co-sharers in the tenancy such right originally arose or who have become by succession co-sharers therein.

(3) The interest of a thekadár is, subject to the terms of his lease, heritable, but not transferable.

34. A person occupying land, without the consent of the landholder, shall be liable for the rent of that land at the rate payable in the previous year, or, if rent was not payable in the previous year, at such rate as the Court may determine to be fair and equitable, but he shall not be deemed to hold the land within the meaning of section 11 until he begins to pay rent therefor.

Rent payable in absence of agreement.

Consideration of caste and in fixing rent.

37. When a Court has to determine the rent of a tenant, if it is proved that by local custom or practice—

40. (1) A landholder may sue for enhancement of the rent of a fixed-rate tenant only on the ground that the area of the land in such tenant's holding has been increased by alluvion, or by the tenant's encroachments.

(2) Where the rent has been varied merely on the ground of an increase or decrease in area under clause (c) or clause (e) of section 42, or clause (d) or clause (g) of section 43, such variation shall not be considered in computing the period of ten years.

(3) The term for which the rent of an ex-proprietary or occupancy tenant is fixed by decree or order of a Revenue Court shall not be less than ten years, but no term in excess of ten years shall be so fixed except upon agreement by the parties.

42. (1) The landholder of an ex-proprietary tenant may sue for enhancement of rent on one or more of the following grounds, and on no others:—

Ejectment to be according to law.

Grounds of ejectment.

57. A tenant, not being a permanent tenure-holder, shall be liable to ejectment from his holding on one or more of the following grounds, namely:—

60. The Court on receiving the application shall cause a notice to be served on the tenant, stating the amount due under the decree for which he is liable to ejectment and requiring him within fifteen days from the service of the notice to pay such amount into Court, or to show cause why he should not be ejected from his holding.

Notice to issue to tenant.

61. If the amount is not so paid, or if payment thereof is not certified to the Court in accordance with the provisions of section 258 of the Code of Civil Procedure, within such time, or such further time as the Court may, for reasons to be recorded, think fit to allow, or if the tenant fails to show cause why such order should not be passed, the Court shall order the ejectment of the tenant.

Ejectment if arrears not paid.

Provided that, if the tenant makes a claim on account of improvements, such claim shall be investigated and the Court shall record a finding as to the amount of compensation payable to the tenant on that account;

if the compensation exceeds the amount recoverable from the tenant as arrears of rent, whether already decreed or not, on account of his holding, together with costs (if any), the order for his ejectment shall be conditional on the payment by the landholder of the balance due to the tenant within such time as the Court may direct;

if the compensation does not exceed the amount recoverable from the tenant as above specified, the tenant shall be ejected, but he shall be entitled to set off the compensation found to be due to him against any claim for arrears of rent including costs (if any), made against him by the landholder:

Provided, also, that, if such claim is made in the Court of an Assistant Collector of the second class, he shall forward the application for ejectment to the Assistant Collector in charge of the sub-division, or the Collector, for disposal.

thinks fit, within one month from the date of the decree, or such further time as the Court may, for reasons to be recorded, allow, the decree shall not be executed except in respect of costs.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, a landholder may sue for compensation in addition to, or in lieu of, suing for ejectment: or for an injunction, or for the repair of the damage or waste with or without compensation.

66. (1) When a tenant is found liable to ejectment on the ground specified in clause (d) of section 57, the Court shall give a decree for the ejectment of both the tenant and the sub-lessee or other transferee, either from the holding or from such portion thereof as the Court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, may direct. If the tenant is not a sub-tenant, the Court may in its decree direct that the decree may be executed as against the sub-lessee or other transferee on the application of the tenant alone, and that, if the tenant so ejects the sub-lessee or other transferee and resumes occupation of the land from which the sub-lessee or other transferee has been ejected within such time and on such terms as the Court may think fit, the decree shall not be executed as against the tenant except in respect of costs.

67. (1) When a landholder sues under section 58 for the ejectment of a tenant holding under a registered lease for a term of not less than seven years, or holding over after the expiry of the term of such a lease, if the tenant pleads that the ejectment is, in fact, sued for because he has refused to agree to an enhancement of his rent, and such issue is decided in his favour,

(2) If the Court finds that an enhancement can be fairly and equitably claimed, it shall determine the amount of such enhancement, and in such case shall pass a decree for the ejectment of the tenant, but shall direct in its decree that, if the tenant, within fifteen days from the date thereof, certifies to the Court that he agrees to pay the enhancement so determined, the decree shall not be executed except in respect of costs.

(3) When a tenant sues under section 79 for recovery of possession if the landholder proves that he was entitled to enter on the holding under the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section, the Court shall presume, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, that the tenant had abandoned his holding.

195. (1) If in any suit, application, or appeal filed in a Civil or Revenue Court, the Court doubts whether such suit, application or appeal should be filed in a Civil or a Revenue Court, it may submit the record, with a statement of the reasons for its doubt, to the High Court.

(2) If the Court is a Revenue Court subordinate to a Collector, no such reference shall be made except with the sanction of the Collector previously obtained.

As to plea in appeal that suit was instituted in wrong Court.

(2) If the Appellate Court has not before it all such materials, and remands the case, or frames and refers issues for trial, or requires additional evidence to be taken, it may direct its order either to the Court in which the suit was instituted, or to such Court as it may declare to be competent to try the same.

(3) No objection shall be taken or raised in appeal or otherwise to any such order on the ground that it has been directed to a Court not competent to try the suit.

(2) The decision of the Court on such question shall not affect the right of any person entitled to the rent of the holding to establish his title by suit in the Civil Court.

Procedure
when defendis not a tenant.

199. (1) If in any suit or application filed in a Revenue Court against a person alleged to be the plaintiff's tenant, the defendant pleads that he is not a tenant but has a proprietary right in the land, and such question of title has not been already determined by a Court of competent jurisdiction, the Court may either—

(2) When an order has been passed under clause (a) of sub-section (1), if the defendant fails to comply with it, the Court shall decide such question of title against him. If the defendant institutes the suit in compliance with the order, the Revenue Court shall dispose of the suit or application pending before it in accordance with the final decision of the Civil Court of First Instance or Appeal, as the case may be, upon such question of title.

(3) If the Revenue Court decides to determine such question of title itself, it shall follow the procedure laid down in the ¹Code of Civil Pro- XIV of 1882. cedure for the trial of suits, and, notwithstanding anything contained in section 193 of this Act, all the provisions of the said Code shall apply to the trial of such question of title.

(a) remand the case to the Revenue Court, or

(b) frame issues with respect to such question of title, and refer them for trial to any subordinate Civil Court of competent jurisdiction.

Procedure in

201. Provided that, if the Court adopts the procedure allowed by clause (a) of sub-section (1) of that section, the plaintiff shall be the party required to institute a suit in the Civil Court.

(2) The provisions of section 200 shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to any appeal in such suit.

(3) If the plaintiff is recorded as having such proprietary right, the Court shall presume that he has it;

but nothing in this sub-section shall affect the right of any person to establish by suit in the Civil Court that the plaintiff has not such proprietary right.

Questions of Tenant Right in Civil Court.

202. (1) If in any suit relating to an agricultural holding instituted in a Civil Court the defendant pleads that he holds such land as the tenant of the plaintiff, or of a person in possession holding from the plaintiff, the Civil Court shall, by order in writing, require the defendant to institute, within three months, a suit in the Revenue Court for the determination of such question. When Civil Court to refer party to Revenue Court.

(3) No length of occupancy of any land, nor any grant of land made by the proprietor, shall release such land from the liability to pay revenue.

59. Whenever the Local Government thinks that any district or other local area liable to be brought under settlement should be so brought, it shall publish a notification to that effect, and every such local area shall be held to be under settlement from the date of the notification until the issue of another notification declaring settlement operations to be closed therein.

71. When the term fixed under section 68 expires, the Collector shall offer settlement of the mahal to the person then entitled to settlement at such assessment as the Board may direct for the remainder of the term of settlement of the local area in which the mahal is situated.
